Impact of Active Learning Methods:

MERI CET's innovative approaches have greatly enhanced students' academic experiences, promoting personal development and preparing them for real-world scenarios. These techniques emphasize comprehension, build confidence, and apply theoretical knowledge in practical ways, benefiting both students and rural communities.

Overall, MERI CET's active learning strategies foster a vibrant and interactive educational setting, providing students with the essential skills and expertise for success in their chosen fields.

ICT Tools used for enhancing student teaching learning

Here are some commonly used ICT tools by our college and how they contribute to enhancing student learning:

1. Learning Management Systems (LMS):

LMS platforms provide a centralized hub for course materials, assignments, quizzes, discussions, and grades. They support blended learning environments where students can access resources anytime, anywhere, and collaborate with peers and instructors. Examples: Moodle, Blackboard, LMS(MERI My Classboard)

2. Presentation Tools:

This help educators create engaging presentations with multimedia elements (text, images, and videos, animations) to deliver content effectively. They can also be used by students for project presentations.

Examples: Microsoft PowerPoint, Google Slides

3. Video Conferencing Tools:

It enables virtual classrooms, online lectures, and remote guest speakers. They provide opportunities for interactive discussions, live demonstrations, and Q&A sessions.

Examples: Zoom, Google Meet

4. Interactive Whiteboards:

Interactive whiteboards combine traditional teaching tools with digital technology, allowing teachers to present multimedia lessons, annotate content, and engage students interactively

Examples: SMART Board

5. Video lecture and E-content:

NPTEL courses primarily consist of video lectures delivered by faculty from IITs and IISc. These videos are accessible through the NPTEL website and YouTube channel. Videos are often supplemented with slides, animations, and demonstrations to enhance understanding.

Examples: NPTEL, SWAYAM, Digital Library, E-Journals, E-ShodhSindhu

6. Social Media and Blogging Platforms:

Social media and blogging platforms can be used for educational purposes such as sharing resources, discussing topics, and fostering online communities for learning and collaboration.

Examples: Facebook, Linked-In

7. Online Assessment Tools:

Online assessment tools offer teachers options for creating quizzes, tests, and surveys, which can be automatically graded and provide instant feedback to students.

Examples: Google Forms

By integrating these ICT tools into teaching practices, educators can produce more engaging and interactive learning environments that address various learning preferences and boost student participation, teamwork, and success.
